

LSE - 11 Society and the environment

About this unit

The BSc Management program (Standard Route) consists of twelve units and you can study four units per year (see below the lists of the Foundation and Further units).

Here next you can read some details of this unit and then shortly about studies generally.

Society and the environment

Aims and objectives

The unit is intended to introduce students to the key issues faced by society which affect the natural environment. Studies will focus on the nature, consequence, causes of, and possible solutions to the major environmental problems faced by society. The subject will require some understanding of natural environmental processes.

Learning outcomes

By the end of the unit and associated reading, students should know and understand:

- The operation of selected components of environmental systems.
- The causes and nature of human impacts on the environment.
- The implications of key environmental issues for human societies.
- The range of possible solutions to environmental problems, and be able to evaluate these.

Students will develop the following abilities and skills:

- Collation and critical evaluation of information on a range of environmental issues from a range of sources.
- Judging the evidence in support of theories and explanations.
- Developing a reasoned, well-structured argument in written form.

Generally about the studies:

Tuition to the LSE Management program

Once you have registered and received your study material from London School of Economics you are on your own until the examinations take place. Yet to structure your own time and studies can be difficult.

That is why MKFC Stockholm College offers you tuition so you can get the most out of your external studies at London School of Economics.

MKFC Stockholm College is using an e-learning platform that makes it easy for every student to follow the syllabus, receive tuition and interact with other students no matter where in the world the student may be.

Each student will also get individual teacher feedback and tuition during ten months per year. Our goal is to improve the skills through tuition so the student passes the examinations and receives a degree from one of the finest universities in the world within the planned timeframe.

The aim of the range of units available is to look analytically and critically at management issues, whilst developing your logical reasoning abilities. As a student you will develop critical skills for a wide range of real world professional situations, as well as get excellent preparation for a career in management consultancy or general management.
